DETAILED ACTION

1. The Preliminary Amendment filed on March 1, 2004 has been entered and considered.
2. Claims 1-6, 8, 10, 12, 14-15 are cancelled by the amendment filed on 3/1/04. Claims 7, 9, 11, 13, and 16 are pending in this application.
3. Upon reconsideration of the previous restriction and the Amendment, the pending claims are herein subjected to restriction requirement in view of the Amendment, and the withdrawal of the previous restriction requirement with regard to Groups IV and V. The previous restriction requirement was based on the distinctness of SEQ ID Nos. 7-12 in Groups IV and V. However, the pending claims are subjected to restriction herein because the claims are drawn to independent and distinct inventions as discussed below. Applicants are allowed to re-introduce the subject matter of cancelled claim 8.

Restriction/Election

4. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 7, 13, 16, drawn to a DNA molecules and a diagnostic kit, requiring SEQ ID Nos. 7-12, classified in Class 536, subclass 24.32, 24.33.
 - II. Claims 9, and 11, drawn to a method of detecting the presence of a DNA molecule in a corn plant, requiring SEQ ID Nos. 7-12, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
5. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in materially different processes such as DNA purification assays or gene therapy assays.

Group I is independent and distinct from Group II because (a) a product of Group I can be obtained from naturally occurring sources or can be synthesized chemically and can be used independently in different processes such as DNA purification assays or gene therapy assays. Examining both the groups would be a serious burden because of the following reasons:

(i) search for one group does not necessarily result in art related to another group (ii) separate classification search is prima facie evidence of burden, (iii) the issues are not the same with respect to 35 U.S.C. 112 and 35 U.S.C. 101 statutes.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04.

Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined.

See “Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
